FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Subject: Fullerton PD Seeking Public’s Assistance in Locating Missing Man
Date: January 14, 2015
Contact: Sergeant Kathryn Hamel
(714) 738-6838
khamel@fullertonpd.org

On January 13th, 2015, Malcom Parker; a 71 year-old man boarded an Amtrak train in Oceanside at approximately 11:45 in the morning. He was due to arrive in Fullerton at approximately 1:00 p.m.; he never made it to his home in the 700 block of Ocean View Drive in the City of Fullerton.

Detectives are currently viewing surveillance camera footage to determine if Mr. Parker disembarked between Oceanside and Fullerton.

Mr. Parker suffers from dementia and Alzheimer’s disease which requires prescription medications. He was discharged on January 6th, 2015 from a care facility in the City of Laguna Beach and had been staying with an older brother in the City of Bonsall up until January 13th, 2015.

He is a male, Caucasian, 5’11”, 160 lbs., with grey hair and blue eyes. Mr. Parker was last seen wearing a long sleeved dark blue button-up shirt, black dress pants with brown loafer style shoes.

Anyone with information about Mr. Parker or his whereabouts is asked to contact Detective Matt Malone at (714) 738-6534 or (714) 738-6817.

Editor’s Note: Two photos of missing man, Malcom Parker