FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Subject: FPD Arrests Two Suspects after multiple stabbing

Date: February 7, 2018

On Wednesday, February 7, 2018 at approximately 1:30 AM, Fullerton Police Officers responded to a Motel in the 1000 block of W. Commonwealth Ave regarding a stabbing that had just occurred. As officers were en-route to the call, they were advised that two victims had been stabbed multiple times by two male suspects, who had fled upon officers’ arrival.

The victims were both immediately transported to local trauma centers with serious injuries; however, they are both expected to survive.

Fullerton Police Detectives were called-in and they began investigating the multiple stabbing.

At approximately 7:00 AM, Fullerton Police Detectives located the two suspects, identified as David Adame (39, Santa Ana) and Rafael Aldaco (38, Whittier), at another motel in Fullerton. At the time of their contact and subsequent arrest, Adame was in possession of a stolen handgun, a stolen vehicle, and narcotics.

The investigation is on-going. Anyone with information about this stabbing is encouraged to contact Fullerton Police Detective G. Johnson at (714) 738-6759. Those wishing to provide information anonymously can call the Orange County Crime Stoppers at 1(855) TIP-OCCS or can visit their website at www.p3tips.com/913.
